Cultivate National Spirit

John Emile Teale, Esquire, Author of Our Greatest Problem

"While we have many economic problems in Canada, poor health is not in economic but spiritual. It requires maintenance of a national outlook and a national spirit as part of a geography that is a condition of national existence."

John Emile, managing director of the Edmonton Journal, in an address at Regina recently.

Mr. Emile points on "Carving out a new Northwest," and declared the present movements to be a new era of Canada were much broader than previous immigration and settlement waves.

Referring to unemployment recommendations by the Dominion government, he said: "The rest of Canada owes it to the Maritimes to see that these recommendations are made effective."

Washable Shoes

Cotton Footwear Sold To Be More Comfortable Than Leather

It won't be long now until the ladies will take their shoes off, give them a few strokes on the washboard, and wash them out to dry.

Washable cotton shoes were among the most interesting exhibits at the fashion show of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers held in Boston, Mass.

The shoes in addition to being washable will be much more comfortable than leather, escholars said. They are made of rayon and indestructible fabric—cotton fabric—and will have heels built in thin leather sole. The uppers, in pastel shades, will be bordered with a fringe of beaver or mink.

Crossed River On Skis

Vienna Men's Club Speed Of Twelve Miles An Hour

A most amazing spectacle recently greeted the spectators on the London Esplanade, when, without any warning, they suddenly came across two men, clad in bathing suits, and attempting to cross the Thames by means of water skis. It did not take many minutes for a wondering throng to collect, and then, urged on by cheers and laughter, the two men, Richard Franz Hirsch and Professor Michael Miller, both from Vienna, set off on their journey across the river and back.

The skis were made of bakelite, were fringed, and covered with waterproof. The wearer carried a small paddle with which he propelled himself along. Apparently they were for amusement purposes and, and the two swimmers claimed that they had achieved up to twelve miles per hour on the river Danube.

The World's Oldest Tune

Used For Popular Song Its Origin Is Lost

The tune to which the popular ditty "For he's a jolly good fellow" is sung is the oldest tune known to man. Its origin says "Looker-up," in the London Daily Chronicle is brought to light that it was well known to the ancient Egyptians, and that they probably got it from Babylon, but beyond this the trail is lost.

Yours to Legation have heard the melody there; it is known to the native tribes of South America, and of a section of school lands in Alberta as part of the E.P. Ranch have been set aside as a result of an order-in-council officially published in the Canadian Gazette.
